Ex-Nazi Unit Now Selling Guns by Mail

1-20-68

By Hank Burchard
Washington Post Staff Writer

The former American Nazi rty, which has been urging e war for more than a dece, now is selling guns by il in anticipation of a Negro rising.

By tele phone, direct mail l advertisements in party blications, the group is of-ing for sale what it calls egro control equipment" ging from riot guns to mical Mace.

he operation, which started ently, is run by William L. rce, assistant executive ofr of the party, from the e of his family in Triar Va., adjacent to the Quan Marine Corps base.

e group, now known as National Socialist White les Party, was founded by ge Lincoln Rockwell, who gunned down last sum-

AT THE BAN!" says the age "catalogue" of "NS
" "Stock your home
—with weapons for the g race war!" The ban re-to is the tightened Fed-un sales law that take in late December.

rce, who also is "ideologfficer" of the party, bea legal Virginia arms r by obtaining a $5.75 s permit from the Comoner of Revenue of e William County. The fications, under State are that an applicant have $5.75 and a Virginia ems in stock include a r magnum derringer,

rman semi-automatic
nd several semi-auto-ifles.

al Mace is a controdisabling spray that nufacturer claims is y to law enforcement
. "There are a number
llers all over the coun-al with," Pierce said.

he party does not nybody. "As long
like a legitimate
head and fill it.
looks suspicious, we police.

"We tend to attract unbalanced people, kooks, as you know."